INSERT1:

1. Page 1367, line 2: after that line insert:

"SECTION 3128r. 301.30 of the statutes is amended to read:

301.30 Inmate wages, allowances and release payments. The department may pay a wage or an allowance and a release payment to inmates at its institutions, except that the department may not pay an inmate for participating in an education or program assignment and may not pay an inmate who is involuntarily unassigned. An inmate is involuntarily^{un}assigned if he or she is willing and able to participate in a work, education, or program assignment, but no assignment is available to him or her. The department shall prescribe the amounts of pay and such hours, health and other conditions in connection with employment as are reasonable."

History: 1989 a. 31.

2. Page 1375, line 2: after that line insert:

"SECTION 3168m. 302.12 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

302.12 (1) The department may provide by rule for the payment of money to inmates, except that the department may not pay an inmate for participating in an education or program assignment and may not pay an inmate who is involuntarily unassigned. An inmate is involuntarily^{un}assigned if he or she is willing and able to participate in a work, education, or program assignment, but no assignment is available to him or her. The rate may vary for different prisoners in accordance with the pecuniary value of the work performed, willingness, and good behavior. The payment of money to inmates working in the prison industries shall be governed by s. 303.01 (4).”.
